

Management and Leadership

فقيه

كلية فقيه للعلوم الطبية
Fakeeh College for Medical Sciences

By the end of this course,
the participants will be able to:

- 1 Recognize the different functions of leadership and management.
- 2 Describe the components of staff development programs, change management, effective work climate and conflict resolution in health professions education.
- 3 Develop comprehensive staff development training plans and effective challenge model in health professions education.
- 4 Explain the principles of planning, organizing, motivation, leading and controlling.
- 5 Use the appropriate information search approaches, information and communications technology in leadership and management practices.
- 6 Demonstrate responsibility for own behavior, growth as an adult learner, organizational skills and time management concepts in management and leadership.

Speakers:

Dr. Shimaa Alarabay
Dr. Rabab Abd Raa'f
Medical Education department

Target candidates:

All health care specialties.

The course will be conducted within three months

(Sept 01, 2021 - Dec 01, 2021)
9:00 am - 11:00 am

For registration, please contact
Academic Affairs Unit Ext #805 or visit our website
www.fakeehcollege.edu.sa