

Professionalism

فقيه

كلية فقيه للعلوم الطبية
Fakeeh College for Medical Sciences

By the end of this course,
the participants will be able to:

- 1 Describe the fundamental principles of professionalism and their relationship with health care setting, society and wellbeing.
- 2 Develop program for teaching and assessing professionalism.
- 3 Summarize the educational theories for teaching professionalism.
- 4 Explain concept, types and components of professional identity.
- 5 Illustrate effective communication and presentation skills in health care setting.
- 6 Show appropriate professional behaviors and relationships reflecting honesty, integrity, commitment, compassion, respect, altruism, respect for diversity, commitment to excellence and maintenance of confidentiality.

Speakers:

Dr. Amira Ismail
Dr. Rabab Abd Raa'f
Medical Education department

Target candidates:

All health care specialties.

The course will be conducted within three months

(Sept 01, 2021 - Dec 01, 2021)
9:00 am - 11:00 am

For registration, please contact
Academic Affairs Unit Ext #805 or visit our website
www.fakeehcollege.edu.sa